REPORT ON 1983 NATIONAL
COIN WEEK CLUB ACTIVITIES

The Ocean County Coin Club of New Jersey reports a tremendous success of its 1983 National Coin Week Show and Exhibit at the Ocean County Mall in Toms River New Jersey April 16 & 17.

Club members displayed 15 interesting exhibits, 12 dealers were provided bourse space and hundreds of questions were replied to.

In addition to the exhibits, Archie Black, club president, obtained a most appropriate display from the "Heritage Bank" that depicted photographs of our American Heritage.

A "Peoples Choice" award for the most interesting exhibits went to Jerry Zara (Lakehurst and her Zeppelins) and Art Daly (George Washington) and both were provided with club plaques.

Advertisement, prior and subsequent to the show, was outstanding. In addition to the local news papers, radio and TV stations covered our show.

The Club's new banner, a 3 X 5 foot blue & white cloth with the Zeppelin logo was displayed for the first time at the show and proved to be a beautiful "eye-catching banner".

In summation, education of the public, through the two-day mall exhibit and show was outstanding. In addition, the club gained ten new members and three became ANA members.

Coin Show Set At OC Mall

TOMS RIVER — On April 16 and 17, the Ocean County Coin Club of New Jersey will open National Coin week with a 2-day exhibit and show at the Ocean County Mall, Hooper Avenue.

Archie Black, club president, said this year's expansion to include a bourse is largely due to the success the club had in exhibiting coins during last year's national coin week.

The Ocean County Coin Club, called by many as the most active coin club in the state, issued a wooden nickel to commemorate the weekend event. It depicts the club logo - the Graf Peppelin, taken from the Lakehurst Naval Air Stat, where the original club meetings were conducted more than ten years ago.

Show hours will be 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. on Saturday, and noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday. There will be plenty of free parking and no admission charge.

For more information write show chairman Jim Majoros, P.O. Box 365, Wrightstown, N.J. 08562.

Hobbies

MEMBERS of the Ocean County Coin Club have some busy days ahead.

As a public service and in honor of National Coin Week, they will be at Ocean County Mall, Hooper Avenue, Dover Township, from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. this coming Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, the next day.

If you have coins, tokens or medals that you would like to know about, it could be an ideal time to get some answers and direction.

Exhibitors also will be on hand.

It's hoped that fellow hobbyists will drop in to support the club and the week. Club officers Archie A. Black, Jerry Zera and James Majoros, the latter exhibit/show chairman, are scheduled to offer advice to noncollectors.

Club members have taken on another big job by agreeing to host the annual Garden State Numismatic Association convention June 23-26 at the Hyatt Cherry Hill, Route 70, Cherry Hill.

Elmer Curran is day editor of the Asbury Park Press. His Mostly Coins column appears Sundays.

Be Sure to Visit "Exploring Our Proud Heritage"

Our last (mild) winter meeting was fun — at least for the double-winners at the Chinese Auction.

Under new business, participation by the Club in the OLV 20th Anniversary celebration was discussed. We decided on a display in the Dorchester lobby. Jill Hubiak juggled the display scene around and gave us two cases for April. We had requested April as National Coin Week; April 17-23 fits into the picture.

Paul Mestern and yours truly are masterminding the display, emphasizing "20", and we hope you-all will enjoy viewing same.

If you do not get there before, come to our meeting on Wednesday, April 6 at 2:00 p.m. as usual; guests welcome.

SPECIAL: In conjunction with the observance of National Coin Week, April 17-23, 1983, "Exploring Our Proud Heritage", the Ocean County Coin Club will sponsor a weekend Exhibit & Show Place-Ocean County Mall Hours: Saturday — April 16, 10:00 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.; Sunday April 17, 12:00 noon - 5:00 p.m.

In addition to the many fine exhibits (I'll have one), dealers with their wares will be available to buy, sell, swap, etc. Whether a collector or non-collector, I feel certain you will enjoy "Exploring Our Proud Heritage" and feel something about the fascinating hobby of numismatics.

See you there?

Archie Black, club president, said this year's expansion to include a bourse is largely due to the success the club had in exhibiting coins during last year's national coin week activity.

The Ocean County

Coin show

The Ocean County Coin Club of New Jersey has issued a wooden nickel to commemorate its two-day exhibit and show at Ocean County Mall starting today, to kick off National Coin Week.

The show has been expanded to include a bourse, due to the success the club had last year in exhibiting coins to the public during National Coin Week.

Show hours are 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. on April 16 and noon to 5 p.m. on April 17. Admission is free.

The wood pictures the Graf Zeppelin, taken from the Lakehurst Naval Air Station, where the original club meetings were held over a decade ago.

Officers of the club will be present to grade any coin or currency.

READERS ASK

Q I was trying to find out about a 25-cent postal currency piece I have when your article and photographs on the same piece appeared in your column of Feb. 13. I was wondering if you can give me a little more advice on how to find a buyer?

A One of the more difficult parts of writing this column is how to advise readers who have one or just a few collectible numismatic items. The problem is that almost any move that's suggested could cost money and that could negate what the collectible may bring.

But, I think in your case I would be willing to risk spending some money to see what the market is willing to pay. At least you'll have peace of mind in knowing that you're releasing the item at a fair price.

Assuming that you're doing some reading homework on what you have, I would first make the rounds of local coin dealers. In addition to visits to coin shops, clubs, such as the Ocean County Coin Club, often have dealers on hand before the meetings.

You also write to Len and Jean Glazer,

Fractional Currency Inc., P.O. Box 111, Forest Hills, N.Y. 11375. Another possible source for suggestions would be James K. Brandt, president of the Garden State Numismatic Association. Brandt probably knows as much about fractional currency as anyone. His address is P.O. Box 515, Montvale, N.J. 07645. Don't send the item or items until you write first. No collectible can be judged sight unseen, of course.

There are two other avenues open to all collectors of coins and paper money. The Ocean County Coin Club will be at Ocean County Mall during the day April 16 and 17 to help noncollectors. The Garden State Numismatic Association's convention June 23-26 at the Hyatt Cherry Hill, Route 70, would be another opportunity.

Healthy numismatics year

ARCHIE A. BLACK, president of the Ocean County Coin Club, one of the biggest and most active hobby groups in the country, reports that the group once again will do its share in promoting National Coin Week.

Plans call for the club to put on a two-day show at the Ocean County Shopping Mall in honor of the week. The first day's program will run from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. April 16 and from noon to 5 p.m. on the following day. Dealers and exhibitors will be on hand as well as club members, who will answer questions on the hobby.

ASIDE FROM the study of coins themselves, one of the things many of us find most enjoyable about the hobby is how it attracts people from a wide range of backgrounds.

That's well illustrated in an upcoming Garden State Numismatic Association election.

Stephen R. Taylor, of Dover, Del., presidential candidate, is a banker. Archie A. Black, of Brick Township, a first vice president candidate, is a telephone systems technician. His competitor for the first VP spot, John Beebe, of Millville, is a retired glassworker.

Others are Jerry Zara, of Brick Township, second vice president candidate, who has his own interior decorating business; Judy Kessler, Millville, treasurer hopeful, a teacher, and Dennis Tilghman, corresponding secretary nominee, a Princeton electronics firm employee and Mercer County College student. James K. Brandt, outgoing president, is a biologist.

While we're reporting on GSNA, we should mention that that group's annual convention will be held June 23-26 at the Hyatt Cherry Hill, Route 70, Cherry Hill.

CLUB NOTES

The New Egypt Coin Club meets 7:30 p.m. at the Plumsted Township Recreation Building, Brindletown Road.

CLUB READIES FOR NATIONAL COIN WEEK

National Coin Week is again upon us and the Ocean County Coin Club is taking full advantage to gain additional membership and spread the word of numismatics throughout the area. Club members will exhibit 15 cases of numismatic material in the center of the Ocean County Mall in Toms River on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17. They will be available to assist the general public in answering questions on the hobby. In addition, the club is sponsoring a coin show at the same time and location. Over 10 club member-dealers will be on hand in the same area. Over 30 news releases were mailed to local newspapers and radio stations last week as well as notices to Coin World and Numismatic News. Our club wooden nickel commemorating the coin week show and exhibit, has been in great demand by collectors all over the country ever since the article hit the numismatic publications. Our Graf Zeppelin logo appeals not only to wood collectors, but to "ZEP" material collectors as well. Over 75 woods have been requested to date.

By Jim Majoros

NATIONAL COIN WEEK: Chairman Majoros has done a fine job, lining up dealers & exhibitors for our 2 day exhibition and bourse at the Ocean County Mall on April 16 & 17th. I do hope that everyone will try to stop by sometime during the weekend. Don't forget to display your O.C.C.C. membership pin proudly.

NATIONAL COIN WEEK ACTIVITY

This exhibit is being displayed by a member of the Ocean County Coin Club in observance of National Coin Week, the 3rd week of April each year.

The theme for this year's program is:
"EXPLORING OUR PROUD HERITAGE"

Do you have an interest in, or a question about; coins, medals, tokens, or paper money ? If so, we cordially invite you as our guest to come to our next club meeting. The first Tuesday each month features an educational aspect of the hobby. Slide programs, guest speakers, show & tell, etc. The third Tuesday each month is reserved for our monthly auction. 100-125 lots are usually auctioned off each month to the highest bidder.

The club publishes a newsletter that is mailed to your home each month, prior to our auction meeting, listing the lots that will be up for bid.

Our annual show, the week after Labor Day each year, is held at the beautiful Beacon Manor Hotel, Pt. Pleasant Beach, NJ. There will be 60 of the area's finest dealers on hand to buy, sell, trade and appraise your numismatic material. In addition, many top quality exhibits are on display competing for our distinctive competitive awards.

An annual banquet, featuring a nationally known numismatic personality as our guest speaker, an annual picnic, field trips, and other activities are undertaken during the year for our members.

All this for only $5.00 per year dues. ($3.00 for juniors).

Not convinced ?? Come to a few meetings as our guest before making up your mind to join. We would be glad to have you.

The Ocean County Coin Club is celebrating it's 13th anniversary this year and we are a member club of the American Numismatic Ass'n., and the Garden State Numismatic Ass'n.
